

Dr. Aghadeer Jweihan is woman empowerment specialist who has worked throughout her life to ensure that she becomes a truly influential Changer in her community.

Dr. Aghadeer wears multiple hats throughout her personal and professional life. She is a wife and a loving mother of three, whilst acting mother for orphaned young adults. On the other end of the spectrum, Dr. Aghadeer is the Director of the office of HRH princess Taghrid Mohammad. She is also the founder and voluntary director of the Princess Taghrid institute for Development and Training - a local NGO established in 2010 to rehabilitate, train and employ orphaned and abandoned youth leading her to become a women empowerment specialist.

With Dr. Aghadeer's ongoing motivation and thrive to be productive, she is the owner of Al Mshkat Lighting fixtures and Interior Design company. Also a proud owner of an agricultural project in the south of Jordan that employs 25 women all year round to produce delicious and hormone free vegetables. Furthermore, Dr. Aghadeer is a supporter of several entrepreneurial projects here in Amman for youth including a glass recycling project.

Dr. Aghadeer is the Founder and General Trustee of the East, West and African Women's Forum, in addition to representing Jordan and specific entities in Jordan such as the UNDP in international conferences multiple times a year and being the Middle East Coordinator for the Arab Women Council.

Dr. Aghadeer is the Author of three scientific and Academic publications on Educational and Psychological Science, and the Science behind terrorism.

Finally, Dr. Aghadeer holds a Bachelor's Degree in Law, a Master's degree in Women Studies and a PHD in Education. With all her formal education, Dr. Aghadeer continued to pursue further professional studies in the fields of NLP, Life Coaching, TOT and CPM.