

Reem AbuOkab is a motivated senior management professional with over 20 years of experience influencing performance through skillful development, enhancement, and orchestration of strategies and solutions that streamline operations, drive productivity, and reduce total operating cost. Reem currently works as Deputy Director – HR at GIG - Jordan.

Reem has a bachelor degree in computer science from University of Jordan and a master degree in MIS from Indiana Wesleyan University -US. She also, holds the PMP (Project management professional), PHR (Professional Human Resources) certificates, SPHRi (Senior Professional Human Resources), CII Certified Insurance, and Diploma in CII.

Reem believes in working together as parents and school staff to share knowledge and experience to have better students, schools, and communities.