

Dears Ahliyyah and Mutran Parents Family,

Upon learning about the school new parents council, I was very much interested to run for this position, and serve as your representatives at school.

I am a mom of two girls ages (5 – kg 2 & 9- Gr. 4). My goals and vision is like anyone of you. I want what is best for our children, a happy, safe environment, plenty of social and life skills, highly educated and lots of friends.

Therefore, I would appreciate your voting for me at parent council position. You won't regret it!

Leaving below a Bio about myself.

Many thanks

Sura S. Al Khasawneh/LLM

---

Sura S. Al khasawneh Bio:

A licensed lawyer in international business law, with a high educational qualification and a solid professional background in program management at publicly-funded international bodies, ministries, and government offices.

My competencies and skills range from project coordination, planning, budgeting, reporting, record keeping, stakeholder liaisons and relations, M&E, communication, translation, and interpretation.

During my successful career journey, I planned, implemented, and coordinated assistance programs for the European Union (EU), USAID, and UNRWA, working in diverse positions such as program development specialist, project coordinator, project manager, delegate, officer, quality assurance expert, and coordinator. During my work with the UNRWA, I helped to create and evaluate the anti-corruption provisions and ethical practices document for the region.

I consider my life calling is helping people, and to full fill my passion, I volunteer extensively, devoting special attention to youth and women programs. my most recent volunteering effort is the "Out & About" initiative- (parenting circle)" and , where I support parents and advocate for children's rights.

I have completed my distinguished master of laws degree (LLM) in International Business Law from the Exeter University (UK) in 2006, and my bachelor's degree in law from the University of Jordan in 2002.

Currently, I am training to become a certified family cases lawyer.