2

A Passionate Business Professional with Unstoppable drive

Manar's purpose is to make a difference in the lives of everyone she comes across. To empower, enlighten and elevate their standards to upgrade our communities, one person at a time. Every time she is putting together a workshop, training, coaching session or conference, she makes sure to send you home with a mind-blowing experience, and a feeling like there is absolutely no obstacle big enough to stand in your way. She started off her career at the age of 17 working a part-time job, while still an under-grad student and upon graduation joined the American Embassy in Amman whom she worked for, for 10 years, after which she decided to start her own business, et Voila! If your Dreams Don't Scare You, then they aren't BIG Enough!

3

Pretty Darn Smart...

But doesn't pretend to know it all. As a Professional Coach, Manar knows that coaching as a career is a work in progress, where you continue to sharpen your skills every step of the way, and regards her career as who she is rather than something she does. Academically, Manar possesses a Master's Degree, continues to enroll herself in continuous education programs by the World's Top Coaches, and has accumulated over 6,300 hours of training as a Certified IAPCM Coach. Manar is skilled at breaking down complex issues into simple steps, and has the tools to help her clients succeed. “When you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change.”

4

As a mother, parenting and her relationship with her kids is focused around a CANI-Constant and Never-Ending Improvement attitude, we live, we learn. She is a catalyst for change in what she does in her career, and does the same at home with her beloved family.
